THE CERTIFICATION RENEWAL PROGRAM

CRCC believes that individuals certified as rehabilitation counselors (CRCs, CCRCs, CRC-MACs, and CRC-CSs) should continue to expand their skills in order to enhance the quality of the services they provide. Certified rehabilitation counselors are encouraged to build on the demonstrated specified levels of knowledge, skills, and ability addressed by the education/employment requirements and the initial certification examination. They are also required to provide evidence of continuing competence through the completion of courses and other activities that will help them more effectively serve their clients.

CRCC requires certification renewal at five-year intervals. Participation in continuing education throughout the five-year intervals is expected; participation in courses and programs sponsored by recognized continuing education providers affords a credible mechanism to support continuing competence and acceptable standards of quality in practice. The continuing education clock hour credits associated with these activities is mapped to the same specified levels of knowledge, skills, and ability addressed by the certification examination. CRCC conducts a role and function study every five years to ensure the CRC certification process accurately reflects the practice of rehabilitation counseling.

Guidelines for Certification Renewal

CRCC does not condone or engage in discrimination based on age, arrest record (including expunged criminal history), citizenship, color, disability (mental or physical), ethnicity/ancestry, genetic information, language (if unrelated to their duties), marital status, military status (including unfavorable discharge), national origin, pregnancy, race, religion, sex/gender, sexual orientation (including gender identity), or any other additional class protected by applicable law, including applicable County or City ordinances.

CRCC respects the privacy of its certificants. The CRCC Privacy Policy is available on CRCC’s website at www.crccertification.com/privacy-policy.

The CRCC certification renewal program allows you to extend your certification status as a CRC, CCRC, CRC-MAC, or CRC-CS. This renewal of your certification is based on the documentation of 100 clock hours of approved continuing education, of which a minimum of 10 clock hours must be in ethics. CRCs also have the option of renewing by re-examination.

Renewal Procedures

A certification renewal application will become available via My Account on the CRCC website approximately four months prior to the valid-through date printed on your certificate. To complete the renewal process, you must:

1. Log in to My Account on the CRCC website.
2. Please update any change in your contact information by accessing your account via my account on the CRCC website.
3. Document that you have completed 100 clock hours of continuing education, including a minimum of 10 clock hours in ethics. Continuing education must be submitted via My Account on the CRCC website.
4. Submit the renewal application. Once you have documented your 100 clock hours of continuing education, the renewal application will be available. You may access the renewal application by logging in to My Account on the CRCC website; click your credential in the My Certifications and Renewals section. Complete and submit the renewal application. Submission includes payment of the non-refundable certification renewal fee.

Note: CRCs have the option of renewing by re-examination. This option is available when your renewal deadline is approaching. You may access the renewal application by logging in to My Account on the CRCC website; click your credential in the My Certifications and Renewals section. Click the CRC Exam link under the Requirements heading. Complete and submit the renewal application. Submission includes payment of the non-refundable certification renewal fee and a non-refundable exam fee. See page 15 for more details.

Notification of Renewal Deadlines

CRCC will make every reasonable effort to send notification that a certificant can begin the renewal process. However, it is your responsibility to renew your certification by the valid-through date on your certificate.

CRCC asks that you pay particular attention to the various deadlines that occur during the certification renewal process. If schedules for requested information are not met, additional fees may apply.

Failure to Renew

Failure to renew your certification will result in the expiration of your certified status. Should you fail to renew your certification and pay all fees, you will be required to re-apply, meet the criteria in effect at the time of reapplication, and achieve a passing score on the certification exam.

Attestation

When you complete your renewal application, you agree that you will adhere to the CRCC Code of Professional Ethics for Rehabilitation Counselors (Code) and acknowledge the information provided in your renewal application is accurate. If CRCC subsequently learns that a certification was renewed on the basis of false, misleading, or inaccurate information, it has the right to revoke or suspend that certification. Furthermore, you signify your acceptance and understanding of the following statement: “Information submitted as part of the application for initial certification or certification renewal becomes the property of CRCC and will not be released to outside parties unless authorized by the applicant/certificant or unless required by law. Individual exam results are released to the certificant and are not released to any institution or employer. For research and statistical purposes only, data resulting from the initial certification and certification renewal process may be used in an anonymous/identifiable manner. CRCC does provide a database listing certificants on its website, which is updated periodically, for the use of the public. CRCC also receives and responds to requests for information about the certification status of those holding its credential.”
Re-Application Following Discontinuation of Application Processing or Revocation of Certification

Certificants who engaged in action that caused CRCC to terminate application processing or revoke an individual’s certification may re-apply after 18-months have elapsed. Re-application does not guarantee a determination of eligibility. CRCC welcomes the submission of a personal statement and/or documentation of affirmative educational or corrective measures taken to address the concern(s) that initially led to termination of application processing or revocation of certification.

Continuing Education

At any time, you may access My CE Report via the My Account Links on the right side of your CRCC account page. You can verify the status of your continuing education submission(s) and the total number of clock hours approved and added toward the total 100 required clock hours.

CRCC strongly encourages you to submit documentation as you complete each activity. Remember, there is no cost to you when submitting continuing education credits that are pre-approved.

Renewing Through Continuing Education

If you renew your certification using continuing education, you must complete 100 clock hours of continuing education, of which a minimum of 10 clock hours must be in ethics. The dates of completion of your continuing education clock hours submitted for your current renewal cycle MUST fall within your current five-year period. 2. Click your certification credential in the My Certifications and Renewal section.
3. When your renewal page displays, see the CRC Exam option under the Requirements heading.
4. Select the Renew by exam option. This will include the online renewal application. You will need to pay your renewal fee and an examination fee (it will display as a single amount). These fees are non-refundable. NOTE: Option to renew by re-examination has an earlier deadline than your actual renewal deadline. The renew by re-examination deadline will be displayed on the CRCC website.
5. If you choose the re-examination option, you MUST sit during the next scheduled certification exam cycle. You cannot defer taking the exam to a future date since your certification will have expired before you can sit for the exam.
6. You must achieve a passing score on the exam.

Test Accommodations

In accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), as amended, and other applicable laws in the United States, CRCC does not discriminate against individuals with disabilities in providing access to its examination program. CRCC provides appropriate accommodations for its examination for individuals with documented disabilities who demonstrate a need for accommodations. The ADA and accompanying regulations define a person with a disability as someone with a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities such as walking, seeing, hearing, or learning. The purpose of documentation is to validate the certificant is covered under the ADA or other applicable laws. Comprehensive information by a qualified professional is necessary to allow CRCC to understand the nature and extent of the certificant’s disability and the resulting functional impairment that limits access to its examinations. Documentation also allows CRCC to provide appropriate accommodations for such a disability.
No certificant shall be offered an accommodation that would compromise the certified rehabilitation counselor examination’s ability to test accurately the skills and knowledge it purports to measure. Similarly, no auxiliary aid or service will be provided that will fundamentally alter the examination.

CRCC offers a wide variety of accommodations to those individuals with a documented disability. Requests for accommodations are reviewed by CRCC on a case-by-case basis, without penalty. To view the list of possible accommodations and download the Test Accommodation Request Form, please visit the website at https://www.crccertification.com/test-accommodations. Additional instructions on how to request test accommodations and guidelines for documenting a request for test accommodations can be found within the CRC Certification Guide.

Certification Exam Schedule

The certification exam cycles are generally scheduled in early March and early October. You will receive information about scheduling your exam when you submit your application to renew your certification through re-examination. Please note: the CRC Certification Guide has detailed information about the CRC examination process. The guide is available on CRCC’s website at: https://www.crccertification.com/crc-exam-schedule.

Certificants Who Do Not Achieve a Passing Score

Certificants who choose to renew by re-examination must achieve a passing score on the certification exam in order to renew their CRC certification or will lose their CRC certification effective as of their certification end date. Certificants who do not achieve a passing score are not eligible to re-take the examination. In order to obtain CRC certification in the future, they must re-apply, meet the criteria in effect at the time of re-application, and pay the required fees.

CRC Interactive Practice Test

CRCC has developed the CRC Interactive Practice Test available through CRCC’s e-UNIVERSITY. The practice test consists of one set of 50 items retired from previous live CRC exams - specifically selected to be reasonably representative of the content and statistical properties of a live CRC exam. The practice test items span all domains or content areas covered in the live CRC exam.

For more information on the CRC Interactive Practice Test, go to the CRCC website at www.crccertification.com/pages/crc_exam_preparation/72.php.

NOTE: Use of the CRC Interactive Practice Test is not required to pursue or obtain CRC Certification and does not guarantee success on the CRC Exam. Furthermore, CRCC does not endorse or recommend other study guides or CRC Exam preparation materials that may be available on the market, as we have not been involved in their development and therefore cannot attest to the accuracy or comprehensive nature of the content contained in those materials.

- The remaining clock hours may be taken in the domain focus or professional development areas described on pages 7 to 15.

If you choose to renew your CRC certification through re-examination, you will be required to achieve a passing score on the CRC examination and also provide evidence of at least 20 clock hours of acceptable continuing education within the Clinical Supervision focus areas that follow be submitted.

- 12-Month Extension Fee: $140
APPEALS PROCESS

CRCC’s appeals process is available to any certificant who feels the eligibility criteria for certification renewal have been inaccurately, inconsistently, or unfairly applied. Materials should be submitted to the Executive Director. If the Executive Director cannot come to a decision, the materials will be reviewed by the Standards and Examination Committee (including any new evidence the certificant wishes to submit). The appeals process is designed to provide:

- Complete reviews of the facts at issue;
- A second, independent evaluation of the material presented to document the certificant’s eligibility for certification renewal;
- Due process; and
- Fair, consistent application of the eligibility criteria.

Requesting an Appeal

At the time a certificant is informed the continuing education or certification renewal documentation submitted has been denied by CRCC, they will also receive information about their right to appeal as well as the procedures, instructions, and time schedules for making such an appeal. A request for such an appeal must be sent to CRCC in writing within 30 days of the decision. None of the members of the Standards and Exam Committee will have taken part in the decision-making process of the Executive Director, thus ensuring a second, objective review of each certificant’s file. However, members of the Standards and Examination Committee will have the report of the Executive Director to study before making their decision. The decision of the Standards and Examination Committee is final.

CRC Retirement Designation

Certified Rehabilitation Counselors (CRCs) who are retiring from active practice may choose the retirement designation, which changes the CRC certification to an honorary designation. CRC/Retired status enables the individual to stay on CRCC’s mailing list to receive updates and news from the field of rehabilitation counseling. There is a one-time fee to select the CRC/Retired status.

An individual may not actively practice using their CRC designation when they are in the CRC/Retired status.

If an individual’s retirement status changes and he or she wishes to regain use of the CRC certification, he or she would need to re-apply, meet the criteria in effect at the time of re-application, and achieve a passing score on the certification examination. Therefore, if an individual believes that he or she may provide consulting or other services in the future using their CRC certification, he or she should not select the retirement designation, but should continue to maintain the CRC certification.

The retirement status may be selected at the time of renewal by selecting the retirement option within the renewal application accessible via My Account on the CRCC website.

Questions and Answers About Renewal and Continuing Education

Based on calls to CRCC, some of the more common questions certificants ask about continuing education and certification renewal are as follows:

What qualifies as continuing education in the ethics focus area?

The content of the program must convey specific behavior that is related back to, preferably, the CRCC Code of Professional Ethics for Rehabilitation Counselors or, alternatively, the ACA Code of Ethics and Standards of Practice. Appropriate subject matter must relate to rehabilitation counseling and must include one of the following:

- The counseling relationship;
- Confidentiality, privileged communication, and privacy;
- Advocacy and accessibility;
- Professional responsibility;
- Relationships with other professionals and employers;
- Forensic services;
- Assessment and evaluation;
- Supervision, training, and teaching;
- Research and publication;
- Technology, social media, and distance counseling;
- Business practices; or
- Resolving ethical issues.

How often must I renew my certification?

Once certified, you must renew your certification every five years.

How do I renew my certification?

Renewal requires submission of an online renewal application and appropriate fees. You also need to document 100 clock hours of approved continuing education, 10 which must be in ethics. These clock hours must be accrued within your five-year period of certification.

Note: For CRCs: Renewal by re-examination is also an option. A passing score must be achieved. The exam must be taken during the first examination cycle following expiration of your certification.

How will I know if a workshop, seminar, conference, or in-service training session I attend is considered pre-approved continuing education?

Many organizations seek CRCC’s pre-approval of their programs. When you complete the activity, the sponsor will provide you with a verification of completion form containing a CRCC approval number. To receive credit, access your account via My Account on the CRCC website, submit a Pre-Approved Continuing Education Application and upload a copy of your verification of completion form. No fee is required for pre-approved programs.
Can I get continuing education credit for activities that aren’t pre-approved by CRCC and what fees would be required?

Yes, any continuing education activity that satisfies at least one focus area described in this guidebook can be submitted for approval on a post-attendance basis. The procedure, which is described in detail in the Continuing Education section of this guidebook, is as follows:

• Access your account via My Account on the CRCC website;
• Click the My CE Report link in My Account Links;
• Upload the required documentation; and
• Pay the required $18.00 processing fee per program.

Note: Post-approved activities will be deleted from your CE Report if the review fee has not been paid within 45 days of submitting the activity.

If I acquire more than 100 clock hours in a five-year period, may I apply the excess to the next renewal cycle?

No, since continuing education is intended to keep certificants current with emerging trends and technologies, it may be applied ONLY to the current five-year certification period.

Is there an advantage to submitting my continuing education on an annual basis?

Yes. It helps you keep track of how much continuing education you have on file and how many clock hours are still needed to renew your certification. At any time, you may check the status of the continuing education clock hours you have submitted via My Account on the CRCC website.

Can I take all of my clock hours through home study programs?

Yes, CRCC does not restrict the method you use to obtain continuing education.
